A Visit to a Water Park

There is a new water park in town. We went there on the first day of summer. It had pools and water slides. There were sprinklers too. The slides were scary at first but you got used to them after the first go. One of the pools made its own waves. All the kids tried to surf the waves. It really was a lot of fun. The water park was very crowded. There were many families around, but pets were not allowed to enter. We really liked the ice cream at the snack bar. They also sold juices and donuts. We all loved the new water park.
