Let's Go to the Concert

Anna: Hi, Lucas! How are you?
Lucas: Hi, Anna! I'm good, thanks. And you?
Anna: I'm great!
Anna: Hey, do you like rock music?
Lucas: Yes, I do! I love it.
Anna: Do you like concerts?
Lucas: Yes, I do! I love them, but I don't go very often.
Anna: Really? Would you like to go to a Maroon Five concert this Saturday?
Lucas: Yes, I'd love to! What time is it?
Anna: It's at 7:00 p.m. at the city park.
Lucas: That sounds great!

Lucas: Would you like to eat something before the concert?
Anna: I'd love to, but I have to help my mom at home.
Lucas: Oh, okay. No problem! What about going to a pizza restaurant after the concert?
Anna: I'd like to, but I need to go home early.
Lucas: That's okay. Maybe another day!
Anna: Yes, maybe next time!

Invitations

- We use "Would you like to…?" To invite someone to do something
  Accepting:
  Yes, I would. / I'd love to. / Sure!
  Refusing:
  I'd like to, but I have to/want to/need to

Be careful!

Do you like…? (General preference): We use "Do you like…?" to talk about things in general.

It means: Is this good for you? Is this your preference?

Example: Do you like to go to concerts? - Yes, I do/No, I don't.

Would you like…? (Offer or invitation): We use "Would you like…?" to offer or invite someone.

It means: Do you want this?

Example: Would you like to eat some pizza? – Yes, I'd like to.
