2 Read the information below about the Sultan Qaboos University (SQU) Rovers. Then listen to the interview with Nasser Al Hinai, leader of the Rovers, and do the activity.

The SQU Rovers

The SQU Rovers are an active group of students in different years at Sultan Qaboos University. There are over 100 male and over 30 female Rovers. They organise many interesting activities and trips throughout the year.

At the start of the first semester, the Rovers work closely with teachers on the Foundation Programme to help new students.

SQU Rovers

LIVEWORKSHEETS

[ ]	1.	Who are the SQU Rovers, and where do they study?	A.	At the start of the first semester, they work closely with teachers on the Foundation Programme to help new students.
[ ]	2.	How many male and female Rovers are there in the group?	B.	They are a group of students in different years, and they study at Sultan Qaboos University.
[ ]	3.	When do the Rovers collaborate with teachers on the Foundation Programme, and what is their role during this time?	C.	There are over 100 male Rovers and over 30 female Rovers in the group.

LIVEWORKSHEETS