II. READING

a. Reading 1

Read the passage below and answer the questions!

I'm just back from a 14-day trip that included 8 days in Bali and 6 in Lombok. I travelled with my husband and two sons aged 6 and 12. Our budget for the trip was $150 per day, but we sometimes went over that. We stayed in mid-range hotels that cost around $55 to $100 a night including breakfast. We hired a driver for transport between towns and for half-day tours, and it cost us around $30. Meals (lunch and dinner) usually cost about $25. We flew Lion Air from Bali to Lombok, the tickets were $50 for a round trip.

From the hotel reviews, Lombok Plaza Hotel in Lombok was the most amazing one, it cost $75 a night. It was quite expensive for us. So, when in Lombok we prefer to stay at Gili Sands Hotel to get the suited price for our budget. The staff there were friendly, it had a nice pool, and it was quiet because it was away from the town. It cost us $45 a night.

In Bali, we spent one night in Ubud. After Ubud, we went to Sidemen and relaxed at the Prama Hotel, where rooms cost $55 a night. It had great views and a lovely pool. The people there were nice and the foods were fantastic. All in all, a great trip which brought many wonderful memories.

b. Reading 2

Hi guys, here is my Eid holiday story.
During my first days of holiday, I still had to work finishing some tasks that had been postponed. Luckily, before my office entered the Eid holiday, I managed to wrap up all the tasks.

During the holiday, I spent my time visiting my sibling's new house in Bogor. There, we tidied up the house, added some furniture, and did some gardening. On Eid day, we performed the Eid prayer at the nearby mosque and got to know our new neighbors. We also went shopping for some furniture that we still needed, such as a wardrobe and shoe rack. After shopping, we spent time assembling the new furniture and took some rest.

I also visited my aunt's house since I didn't get a chance to visit her during Chinese New Year. After the holiday was over, I went back to work.
