He works at night, but she works during the day...

1 What do you do, Jess?
I work in an office. I'm an administrator.

2 Do you work long hours?
No, I don't. I work normal hours, from 9:00 to 5:00, Monday to Friday.

3 What does your husband do?
He's a police officer. He works at night, from 8:00 p.m. to 6:00 in the morning.

4 Does he have free weekends?
No, he doesn't. Well, he has two free days, but they're Wednesday and Thursday. He works Saturday and Sunday – they're busy nights for police officers.

5 Do you have time together?
Not really, except when we're on vacation. I'm in bed when he comes home; he's in bed when I leave home in the morning. We don't eat together. That's awful. Sometimes I don't cook, I just have cookies for dinner.

Can you think of any good things about your different hours?
Yes, we earn more money because Carl does a lot of overtime.

Do you have any suggestions for couples like you?
Have a whiteboard in your hall or your kitchen and write dow the housework. Then check off things when you do them. T way, the dogs don't eat twice!
