Animal Behaviors and Animal Migration

Click at the correct answer(s) for the following questions about animal behaviors.

1. What is a behavior?
a) It is something that an animal does.
b) It's the way an animal looks like.

2. What may an animal do in order to escape from the intense heat?
a) immerse themselves in cool water.
b) hide under the shade of a tree or inside a cave.
c) immerse themselves in warm water.

3. What do Japanese macaques do in order to escape from the intense cold?
a) immerse themselves in cool water.
b) immerse themselves in warm water.

4. What do reptiles in order to stay warm?
a) They run and run endlessly.
a) They lay under the sun rays to keep warm.

5. What is migration?
a) The action of sleeping during the cold winter months.
b) The action of traveling to warmer places where there is enough food to eat and to escape from the intense cold.

6. Watch the videos. Then match each migration with right animal.

From North Carolina
to Canada and Alaska

Across the grasslands
of Kenya & Tanzania

From North America
& Canada to Mexico

5 miles to the sea
to lay their eggs

LIVEWORKSHEETS