The Perfect Pet for You - Interpretation Questions (No-Table Boxed Layout)

1. Interpretation Question:

What does the author mean when they say buying a pet is like 'choosing a new friend'?

Options: a) Pets must match your lifestyle b) Pets are expensive c) Pets like to play games

Write Answer:

2. Interpretation Question:

Why does the author mention that hamsters run on their wheels at night?

Options: a) They are active when people sleep b) They like music c) They need big cages

Write Answer:

3. Interpretation Question:

What does the author want readers to understand about reptiles needing heat lamps and UVB lights?

Options: a) They are simple pets b) They need special care c) They can live anywhere

Write Answer:

4. Interpretation Question:

Why does the author ask readers to think about their family's habits before choosing a pet?

Options: a) To match the pet's needs with the family's lifestyle b) To choose the cutest pet c) To buy many pets

Write Answer:

5. Interpretation Question:

What does the author suggest by saying 'the perfect pet isn't just the cutest one'?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The Perfect Pet for You - Interpretation Questions (No-Table Boxed Layout)

Options: a) Cute pets are expensive b) A pet must fit your life c) Cute pets are nocturnal

Write Answer:

LIVEWORKSHEETS