GE7 UNIT 5 THE GREAT OUTDOOR 2

1. Read and match the definition with the word:

way	waterproof jacket	campfire	wildlife	make
read	path	first-aid kit	identify	follow
sleeping bag	use	tent	compass
emergency food supplies	water bottle	torch	over a campfire	put up

Things you should carry with you to eat if you get very hungry when you're a long way from your camp: _____

We couldn't find our _____ back to the camp, so we were completely lost in the woods.

You put it up to sleep when you go camping: _____

Animals and plants living in a natural place, not in a zoo: _____

You use it to carry your own water when you go on a trip: _____

A small electric lamp that you can hold in your hand and carry with you: _____

You can get into this and stay warm while you sleep: _____

You can cook over this outside when you go camping: _____

To work out what something is, for example which type of tree, flower or bird: _____

It helps you avoid getting wet in the rain: _____

If you get lost, you may need to _____a map or _____ a compass to help you find your way back to the camp.

There are useful things in a _____ which you can use if you get hurt.

A small road for walkers or cyclists, but not for cars: _____

It shows you direction/ where North, South, East and West are: _____

You should learn to _____ a tent and _____ a campfire before the upcoming comping trip.

_____ the path through the woods until you see a hut made out of candy and cookies.

Do you really know how to cook _____?

Read and answer the questions in complete sentences:

When might you need to use a map and a compass?

_____

When might you need to build a shelter?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. GERUNDS: Read, find the mistake in every sentence and rewrite it:

We're interested in taking this English course and practice English with native speakers.

_____

Do you know that swiming is a really important life skill?

_____

I'm not so good for reading a map.

_____

Put up a tent isn't always easy.

_____

Are you keen identifying insects and plants?

_____

She doesn't really like bungee jump.

_____

Terry imagined walk down the street and suddenly tripping over in front of many people.

_____

We'd like seeing you two at our farewell party next week.

_____

I can never forget to get lost in the forest that day. It was a terrible experience!

_____

Complete the sentences about outdoor activities.

_____ is my favorite outdoor activity.

I don't like _____ on my own.

I'm master at _____, but I'm not very good at _____.

My best friend is really interested in _____.

I don't know anybody who is keen on _____.

_____ is something I'd like to try one day.

I sometimes imagine _____ with my family. That would be a lot of fun!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Read and complete the text with the given words:

city	fact	harder	harm	lose	nature	outside
refresh	relaxed	sense	true	view	vitality	~~about~~

But what ……about…… [1] people who live in a ……[2] and don't have time to go ……[3] and enjoy nature? Well, as a matter of ……[4], scientists have found that people who work near a window with a ……[5] of a park, a garden or even just a tree are more ……[6] than those who don't. And because they are more relaxed, these people work or study ……[7]. So, if your desk isn't near a window, it makes ……[8] to take breaks and go to a window with a view of ……[9]. It seems that just a one-minute break can ……[10] and rejuvenate you. These 'green micro-breaks', as some psychologists call them, can give us energy and ……[11] throughout the day. Does it all sound a bit too good to be ……[12]? Well, there's no ……[13] in trying it. You've got nothing to ……[14]!

SAMPLE

LIVEWORKSHEETS