How to Cook?

Take a look at the recipe below, read it, and identify 5 vocabulary of each part of speech.

How to make a plate of simple fried rice.

Ingredients:

- 1 plate of cooked rice
- 1 egg
- 2 cloves of garlic (chopped)
- 2 tablespoons of cooking oil
- 1 tablespoon of soy sauce
- Salt (to taste)
- Pepper (to taste)

Tools:

- Frying pan
- Spatula
- Stove
- Plate

Steps:

1. First, (1) ____ the oil in a frying pan.
2. Next, (2)____chopped garlic and fry until fragrant.
3. Then, crack the (3)___ into the pan and scramble it.
4. After that, add the cooked rice and mix (4)___.
5. Next, (5)___ soy sauce into the (6)___.
6. Then, add (7)___and pepper to taste.
7. Afterwards, stir everything (8)____ for 3–5 minutes.
8. Finally, turn off the stove and serve the fried rice (9)____ on a plate.

Verbs	Noun	Adverbs
Heat	Egg	Gently
Pour	Salt	Thoroughly
Add	Rice	Immediately

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 2

Read the previous recipe one more time and answer questions below.

1. What is the purpose of the sentence “Heat the oil in a frying pan”?
A. To describe the oil
B. To give a command
C. To tell a story
D. To ask a question

2. Which word shows the correct sequence in a procedure text?
A. Delicious
B. First
C. Garlic
D. Pan

3. Which sentence uses a correct imperative verb?
A. Heating the garlic in the pan.
B. Heats the garlic in the pan.
C. Heat the garlic in the pan.
D. Heated the garlic in the pan.

4. Which sentence is NOT an imperative sentence?
A. Stir everything evenly.
B. Turn off the stove.
C. The rice is ready.
D. Add soy sauce.

5. Which sentence has the correct verb form for an imperative sentence?
A. Heating the oil in a frying pan.
B. Heated the oil in a frying pan.
C. Heat the oil in a frying pan.
D. Heats the oil in a frying pan.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 3

Read the previous recipe one more time and answer questions below.

1. What is the text about?
2. Why do we follow the steps in the text?
3. What will happen if we do not follow the steps correctly?
4. After reading the text, what can you do?

Activity 4

From the previous recipe, identify which structure each piece of information belongs to by filling the information column with the correct information number.

1. This text explains how to make a plate of simple fried rice.
2. Then, add the rice, mix all ingredients with soy sauce, salt, and pepper, and cook until ready.
3. The ingredients are cooked rice, an egg, garlic, oil, soy sauce, salt, and pepper.
4. First, heat the oil, cook the garlic, and scramble the egg in the pan.
5. The tools used are a frying pan, a spatula, a stove, and a plate.

Structure	Clues	Information
Goal	Statement of what will be made of the recipe.	1
Materials	List of items needed to do the procedure.
Steps	A sequence of actions needs to be done to achieve the procedure text's goal.

LIVEWORKSHEETS