

1. It is a small thing produced by a plant, from which a new plant will grow:
  - A. A flower
  - B. A seed
  - C. Leaves

2. Seedless plants:
  - A. Don't have seeds.
  - B. Have 7 seeds
  - C. Have only one seed

3. The function of the vascular tissue in plants is:
  - A. To transport water and nutrients to different parts of the plant.
  - B. To protect the flower.
  - C. To protect the plant from herbivores.

4. The main characteristic of vascular plants is:
  - A. They have a system for transporting water and nutrients.
  - B. They don't have a system for transporting water and nutrients.
  - C. They grow near the ground.

5. The main characteristic of nonvascular plants is:
  - A. They have a system for transporting water and nutrients.
  - B. They don't have a system for transporting water and nutrients.
  - C. They are tall

6. This type of plant obtains water from the environment and passes from cell to cell.
  - A. Vascular plants
  - B. Nonvascular plants

7. A spore is:
- A. A type of insect that eats plants
  - B. A reproductive cell
  - C. A type of nonvascular plant.
8. Which difference is correct between vascular and nonvascular plants?
- A. Vascular plants have more colors than nonvascular plants.
  - B. Vascular plants attracts more insects.
  - C. Vascular plants are taller and nonvascular plants are small.
9. Ferns and horsetails are examples of:
- A. Vascular plants
  - B. Nonvascular plants
10. Mosses and liverworts are examples of:
- A. Vascular plants
  - B. Nonvascular plants