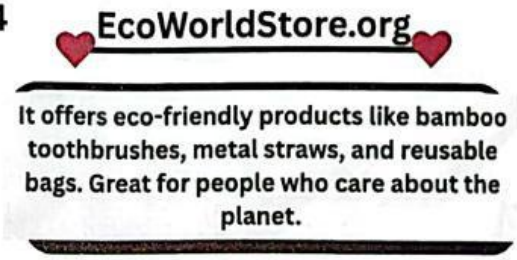
H) You can find all kinds of school books and story books.
I) This website offers special discounts on some days of the year.
J) This site has kitchen tools, cups, and cooking pots.

1

2

3

4



5

6

7

8

LIVEWORKSHEETS

EXERCISE 14

Match each sentence (A–J) to the correct ancient empire (1–8). Two sentences do not match any empire.

Statements:

A) This empire became famous for its king who presented a lot of gold.
B) They often changed living locations and were buried with treasures.
C) People here used gold to make beautiful crowns and joined many parts of their country.
D) This group lived in South Africa and built cities deep in the desert.
E) They ruled the seas and helped spread Buddhism between islands.
F) These people built religious buildings and used water wisely for farms.
G) They used a special writing system and constructed high towers.
H) These people built cities high in the mountains.
I) This empire created the first machines for farming and war.
J) They started making iron equipment and wrote peace agreements.

ANCIENT EMPIRES

1

KINGDOM OF AKSUM
(East Asia)
This empire was in what is now Ethiopia. It was rich from trade and used its own written language. It built tall stone towers called stelae.

2

HITTITE EMPIRE
(Asia Minor)
The Hittites lived in what is now Turkey. They were the first people to make tools and weapons from iron. They also made peace treaties.

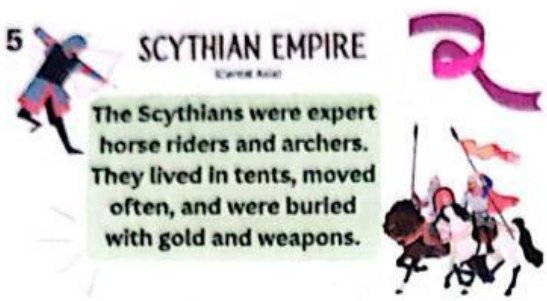
3

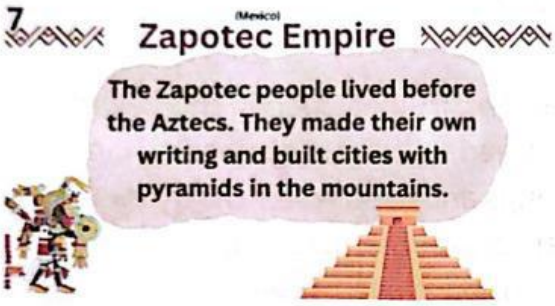
Khmer Empire
(Southeast Asia)
This empire was in present-day Cambodia. It built huge temples like Angkor Wat and had an advanced water system for farming.

4

MALI EMPIRE (Africa)
The Mali Empire became rich from gold and salt trade. Its famous king, Mansa Musa, gave away so much gold that people still talk about him today.

LIVEWORKSHEETS





EXERCISE 15

Which sentence matches each festival? Two sentences do not match any festival.

Statement:

A) People compete while lifting their partners to win a prize.
B) People cut vegetables into fun shapes for others to see.
C) A festival where people play games with fruits.
D) A spring festival where people throw color and dance.
E) An animal plays a key role in this festival.
F) People throw water at each other in the street.
G) This is a religious festival and people do difficult things to themselves
H) Men on horses pull the head of a pretend bird.
I) People paint eggs and eat sweets.
J) People beat each other to attract the best of luck.

LIVEWORKSHEETS