

The pros and cons of globalisation

How long has globalisation been around?

Sharing ideas, information, culture, etc.

How are developing countries being helped by globalisation?

They are becoming out of business because the richest countries dominate the world trade

What's one negative point about globalisation?

It may be because it brings a loss of local culture and loss of identity.

What are some positive aspects about globalisation?

It's not creating a equal world

Why are people getting more conscious about deforestation and global warming?

The richest countries

Which countries benefit more of globalisation?

Hundred of years

Due to exchanging of information that globalisation can bring

What is happening to local companies due to globalisation?

Getting richer and richer

Is globalisation a danger for cultural diversity?