All right, class. Today we're going to talk about reptiles. Now, as you probably remember, reptiles are (1)_____ animals that are hatched from eggs and have scales. Does this sound (2)_____ to everyone? Okay, good. Now, I think the best thing to do would be to get into examples of reptiles. Let's see, um, (3)_____ your hand if you've ever heard of an animal called the horned toad. Okay, so many of you have heard of this (4)_____. I see some questions in your eyes. You are probably wondering why we're going to talk about the horned toad since I just (5)_____ that we'll be discussing reptiles.
