WAITER!

I went to the cinema last week and laughed all the way (1) _____ the new film Waiter!, which is set in a restaurant. American actor Tom Waters plays the worst cook the world has ever seen and he employs one of the worst waiters, played (2) _____ Joe Vermont.

The London restaurant (3) _____ the filming took place does actually exist. Jane Connors, the owner, runs a successful business with many regular customers. However, although she thinks Waiter! is a good film, she is very annoyed (4) _____ the director.

When she agreed to the filming, she wasn't told that the film is about a restaurant where everything goes wrong (5) _____ the food is disgusting. Although the film might make Jane's restaurant famous if it is a success, she is afraid that people will stop coming because they will think the food and service are terrible - like they are in the film.

Jane is worried she will lose business and may even have to close (6) _____ start again with a new restaurant.

Having seen the film, I agree that she has a problem. The film company paid her a very small fee, and she has since asked (7) _____ more. The best solution, though, is for her to contact the newspapers. I am sure they will be interested (8) _____ her story and it will actually help her business in the end.

The film has become very popular because (9) _____ actors and the funny story. Many people want to see it again, and some of them even talk (10) _____ it online after watching it.

Think carefully and choose the best word!
