Anatomy of Mystery

Read the resource 'Anatomy of Mystery' and complete it with words from the text.

1. What's mystery? Mystery is one of the most popular literay genre among _____ genre. The main charcateristic is that the stories always begin with or are based on a _____. Reading mystery literature is like solving a _____

1. A detective or investigator. ●
2. The victim ●
3. The suspects ●
4. The clues ●
5. Red herrings ●
6. The criminal ●
7. The suspense ●
8. The twist ●
9. The solution ●

● These are the characters thought to be the responsible for the central problem of the mystery.

● They are used as distractions

● The guilty party in a mystery story is not revealed until the end.

● Mysteries often include one or more twists at the end or some other point in the story.

● They are presented through flashbacks or testimonies from other characters.

● Stories must always present the solution to every piece of information given.

● They follow clues and work to put the pieces together to solve the case.

● They help the detective solve the crime.

● It refers to the uncertainty about upcoming events that is characteristic of this genre.

LIVEWORKSHEETS