

Choose the sentence that matches the best with each problem.

crashed
computer

mislain object

burnt food

leaking pipe

broken down
washing machine

grazed knee

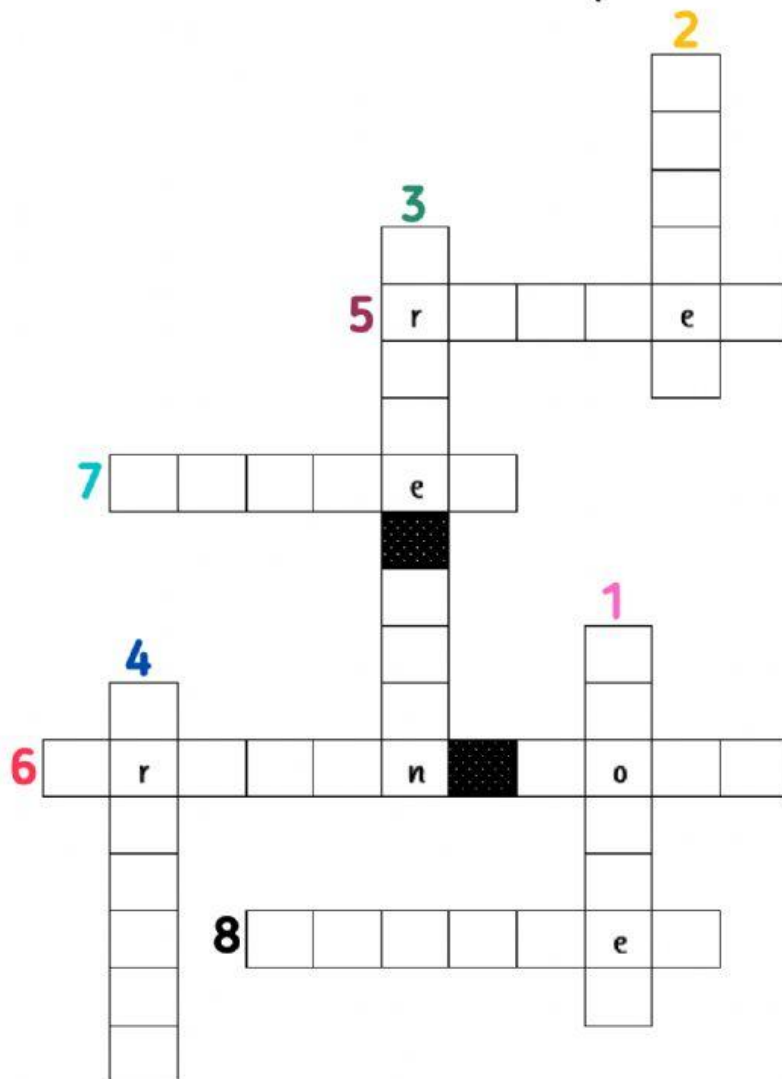

run out
batteries

broken down
car

Read the sentences and complete the crossword with adjectives or verbs.

DOWN

1. Buy some batteries, please - the clock just
2. You your elbow rather hard - you might get a bruise.
3. She'll be 30 minutes late, her car
4. I had a vase repaired with the Japanese technique Kintsugi.

ACROSS

5. Everything was too salty, it the meal, we had to get a takeaway.
6. My printer has again, I think I'll have to replace it.
7. He the car accidentally while he was parking it.
8. The sink is again, it's time to call the plumber.

Write the number of the beginning of a sentence in front of the ending.

1. There was a power cut
2. She bumped her head
3. You'll get locked out
4. I think I've mislaid
5. The vending machine stopped working
6. The crisps got all crushed

you should have put them on the top of the bag.

unless you're careful, better take your keys, it's really windy.

against the glass door, she was looking at her phone.

my phone's charger, have you seen it?

thankfully, we had a couple of candles, we should buy a few more.

again! Supposedly, someone will come and fix it tomorrow.