YES You can!

Narrative Text
WORKSHEET

NAME:

CLASS:

DATE:

GET STARTED

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LISTENING SECTION

FOR THIS SECTION, LISTEN CAREFULLY TO THE STORY AND WRITE DOWN THE MISSING WORDS TO COMPLETE THE STORY.

THE LION AND THE MOUSE

Once upon a time, there lived a lion who ruled the forest. One day, after eating his meal, the lion fell asleep under a tree. A little mouse saw him and thought it would be fun to play on him. He began running up and down the sleeping lion. He ran up the tail and slid down the tail. The lion woke up angrily with a loud roar. He grabbed the mouse with his huge paw. The mouse struggled but could not escape. The lion opened his big jaws to swallow him. The mouse was very scared

“Oh King, I'm very scared please don't eat me! Forgive me this time, please! Let me go! I shall never forget it. Maybe one day I can help you.”

The lion was so amused by the idea of the mouse being able to help him that he lifted up his paw and let him go.

“Thank you, King. I will never forget your kindness.”
“You are lucky my friend, that I've just eaten. Now go, but don't mess with me again or I will make a meal of you!”

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A few days later, the lion was roaming the jungle. Hunters set a trap to catch the lion. The hunters hid behind the tree, waiting for the lion to approach the trap. As he did the hunters pulled the ropes and caught him in the net. The Lions started to roar loudly and tried to escape. The hunters fastened the net. They went back to the Village to bring a cart to transport the lion. The lion was still roaring loudly. All the animals, including the mouse heard the roar.

“The king is in trouble. I must return the favor.” He soon reach the lion.
“Don't worry my king I will set you free.”

He climbed up the trap and used his sharp little teeth to bite through the ropes. Finally, he freed the lion from the trap. The lion realized that even a little mouse can be a great help.

“Thank you Mouse. I will never trouble you again. Live happily in my Forest. You saved a King's life. Now, you are the prince of this forest.”
“Thank you King! Bye. see you soon!”
“Where are you going? Don't you want to play on me and slide down my tail?”

The mouse started jumping on his back and sliding down his tail. After a while, the hunters came back with a big cart to carry the lion. The lion and the mouse saw them and started running towards them. The lion gave a big roar. The hunters were terrified and ran away back to the Village. The lion and mouse became friends forever

THE END

LIVEWORKSHEETS

IT'S A MATCH

The sentences on the left box are part of a story about Grasshopper and the ant. Match the sentences to its generic structure on the right box by drawing a line!

Winter began. The grasshopper felt cold and could not found anything to cat. He went to the Ant's house. The ant gave him food.

ORIENTATION

We might not waste much time just for having fun. However, we have to prepare ourselves for thefuture.

COMPLICATION

Once upon a time, the grasshopper was playing his guitar while the ant worked hard to gather food.

RESOLUTION

The grasshopper laughed at the ant. The ant said that the grasshopper should gather food too for winter but the grasshopper did not worry about it because he had some to cat.

RE-ORIENTATION

LIVEWORKSHEETS

TRUE OR FALSE

Based on the story about grasshopper and the ant provided in section 3, state whether the statements are true or false. Give a check on the right box!

1. The grasshopper was playing a guitar and enjoying the winter. T ☐ ☐ F
2. The grasshopper and the ant worked hard to gather food. T ☐ ☐ F
3. The ant prepared a lot of food for winter season. T ☐ ☐ F
4. The grasshopper accepted the Ant's advice. T ☐ ☐ F
5. When the winter season came, it was hard to look for food. T ☐ ☐ F
6. The grasshopper suffered and got hungry in winter. T ☐ ☐ F
7. The ant spent his winter happily. T ☐ ☐ F
8. The grasshopper came to the Ant's house for getting food. T ☐ ☐ F

LIVEWORKSHEETS