SINCE, FOR, ALREADY, YET, OR JUST?
THE VERY HUNGRY CATERPILLAR

Complete the sentences with: since – for – already – yet – just

1. The caterpillar has _____ eaten one apple and two pears.
2. He hasn't become a butterfly _____.
3. The caterpillar has lived inside the egg _____ Sunday.
4. He has been hungry _____ many days.
5. The caterpillar has _____ finished eating the chocolate cake.
6. Have you read The Very Hungry Caterpillar _____?
7. The caterpillar has stayed inside the cocoon _____ two weeks.
8. He has _____ turned into a beautiful butterfly.
9. We have known this story _____ we were children.
10. The caterpillar hasn't eaten the watermelon _____.
11. He has eaten too much food _____ Saturday.
12. The butterfly has _____ come out of the cocoon.
13. The caterpillar has slept inside the cocoon _____ a long time.
14. Have your students learned the days of the week _____?
15. The caterpillar has been tiny _____ the beginning of the story.
16. He has _____ eaten sausages, cupcakes, and ice cream!
17. The caterpillar hasn't felt hungry _____ becoming a butterfly.
18. They have studied this book _____ three lessons.
19. The caterpillar has _____ made a house around himself.
20. We haven't watched the story video _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS