FOOD JINGLES

Jingle One – Listen to the song and do the tasks.

1. Listen & complete "I want my _____ back,"

2. What is being advertised?

a. clothes b. grilled meat c. barbecue sauce

3. What feeling does the jingle try to create?

a. hunger b. fear c. relaxation

4. How many times do you hear "baby back"?

a. three b. thirteen c. thirty

Jingle Two – Listen to the song and do the tasks.

1. Listen and check the words you hear:

___ rock to the beat _____ great food ___ glory

_____ relieve the stress _____ french fries _____ move your feet

2. What is the singer talking about?

A. things he enjoys in life B. a holiday C. a new restaurant

3. Why is "loving'" spelled with the "g"?

A. It's a spelling mistake

B. It shows informal spoken English.

C. It is British English

3. Why is the phrasing "I'm loving' it" unusual?

A. We don't normally use "love" in the continuous form.

B. "Love is always incorrect.

C. The sentence has not subject.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Jingle Three – Listen to the song and do the tasks.

1. "I'd like to buy the world a …..

A. house b home c school

2. " and furnish it with …

A furniture b. flowers c. love

3. I'd like to teach the world to …

a. sing b dance c smile

4. "I'd like to buy the world a …

A Coke b. coffee c sandwich

5. What feeling is this commercial trying to promote?

A desire for a healthy life

b. friendship and harmony

c. being thirsty

4 Which words describe the advertisement?

____ peace ____ danger _____ friendship

____ competition ____ community _____fear

5. Why does Coca-Cola call itself "It's the Real Thing?"

a. to say that Coke is a high-quality, original drink.

b. to explain how Coke is made.

c. to describe the ingredients.

Match the product's ad with its message. Draw a line.

a. friendship and harmony
b. saving money on your food purchases.
c. enjoying life and having fun.
d. protecting the environment.
e. delicious food that makes you hungry.

LIVEWORKSHEETS