

Indicate true or false and support your choices by indicating where you obtained the information from in the text you've read.

true false

- 1- In the Elizabethan theater, the stage had no roof over it.
- 2- The stage's ceiling was called the heavens and it depicted part of the cosmos.
- 3- Johannes de Witt was a Dutchman who drew a sketch of the Swan.
- 4- Shakespeare's plays were staged only at the Globe.
- 5- The stages in the Theatre, the Curtain and the Globe were different from the Swan and the Rose.
- 6- The Blackfriars was an indoor playhouse.
- 7- The Blackfriars had room for large audiences.
- 8- It was cheaper to see a play at the Blackfriars than to see it from the yard in an outdoor theater.
- 9- The stages in Shakespeare's time were different from the English stages today.
- 10- Acting companies were organized in different ways: some of them had a theater leasing, and others owned a theater and shared profits and expenses.
- 11- Actors required protection of powerful patrons if they did not want to be considered vagabonds or reckless beggars.

☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐
☐	☐