

What's the matter?

1. Watch the video and learn about illnesses, symptoms and expressions to give advices.

2. Match the images with the solutions given in the video we saw earlier.

1.

A: I have a cold.

B: You should see a dentist.

2.

A: I have a stomach ache.

B: You should go to bed.

3.

A: I have the flu.

B: You should eat some chicken soup.

4.

A: I have a fever.

B: You should lie down.

5.

A: I have toothache.

B: You should take some medicine.

3. Now, Complete the conversation taking into account the images. Follow the example:

Example:

STUDENT A	STUDENT B
I feel terrible ...	What's the matter?
I have a cough	That's too bad!, you should see a doctor
I think you're right!	I hope you get better soon!!!!

STUDENT A	STUDENT B
I feel _____...	What's the matter?
I have a _____	That's too bad!, you should _____
I think you're right!	I hope you _____!!!!

Wendy A.