LIVEWORKSHEETS

Flynn McGarry is a New York chef who started cooking professionally at 11 years old! He learnt how to cook because his parents used to cook the same thing, pasta with tomato sauce and chicken, and he wanted to eat different dishes. He cooks all the time, but he hardly ever cooks if it's only for him.

Sheku Kanneh-Mason is a cellist, and in 2016, he won the BBC Young Musician Award; he was the first black musician to win the competition. He played for a global audience of two billion people at the wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle in the UK! Sheku started playing the cello when he was six years old. He has five sisters and one brother, and they all play musical instruments. In 2015, they appeared on a talent show. They reached the semi-finals but didn't win. The experience helped with performing and being on camera.
