1. Reading Comprehension

It was the last Friday before the winter holidays. Eva usually feels excited about vacations, but today she was a little sad because she would miss her friends.

In the morning, the children helped clean the classroom. Eva picked up books from the floor, while Kim and Coco cleaned the classroom windows. Right now, everyone is working together to leave the room tidy. When they finished, the teacher said, "Great job! Now come and get your surprise gift!"

Alex said, "Ben is sick today, but I can take his gift to his house." Ben has an earache and a cough, so he is resting at home. The teacher said, "He shouldn't play sports today. He should stay warm and drink water."

During the break, the children talked about their holiday plans. Alex is from Australia, so he is Australian, and he loves playing basketball. Eva enjoys sports too; she practices volleyball every week. Kim and Coco are British, and they enjoy playing badminton together.

After lunch, it was time for the class picture. Eva cleaned her shoes, and Coco fixed her hat. The teacher said, "First, let's take a serious picture. Then let's take a funny one!" Everyone smiled for the first picture. Then they made silly faces for the second one. It was a wonderful day at school!
