Ana Martínez is 27 and she came from Madrid to Sydney five years ago. At first, she missed her family and friends a lot because everything was new for her. But now she is happy because she has a good job and many friends. She works as a graphic designer in a big advertising company. Ana's boyfriend is Australian, and they have a dog called Max.

Why did she come to Australia? Ana says she came because she wanted to learn English and have new experiences. She is at her office from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and then she goes to the gym or meets her friends for coffee. She likes Australia very much because the people are friendly and the weather is good. When she first came to Australia, she didn't know anyone, so she felt a little lonely. Now her parents come to visit her every year. They stay for a few weeks, and they all enjoy going to the beach and visiting new places together.
