Name: _____ Class: _____

Beaver Adaptations

Beavers are important and special animals. Beavers have special _____. The first adaptation are very large front _____. These teeth can cut a tree. Can your teeth cut a tree?

Beavers have another easy to see _____. They have large, flat tails. These _____ help push the beaver in the water so they can swim faster.

Beavers have other special _____ that you can't see. They have very large lungs. _____ help them breathe. Large lungs help them stay underwater for fifteen minutes!

1.) Which is an adaptation?

a Beavers have eyes to see.

b Beavers have legs to walk.

c Beavers have large, special teeth to cut trees.

2.) Which is an adaptation?

a Beavers have a flat tail to help them swim.

b Beavers drink water.

c Beavers eat leaves.

3.) Which is an adaptation?

a Beavers have feet to talk on.

b Beavers have large lungs to hold their breath underwater.

c Beavers have fur.

An adaptation makes an animal useful and special in its environment. true | false

Cutting down trees with my teeth is fun and easy! true | false