

Name: _____ Class: _____

Beaver Adaptations

Beavers are important and special animals. Beavers have special _____. The first adaptation are very large front _____. These teeth can cut a tree. Can your teeth cut a tree?

Beavers have another easy to see _____. They have large, flat tails. These _____ help push the beaver in the water so they can swim faster.

Beavers have other special _____ that you can't see. They have very large lungs. _____ help them breathe. Large lungs help them stay underwater for fifteen minutes!

An adaptation makes an animal useful and special in its environment.

Cutting down trees with my teeth is fun and easy!

1.) Which is an adaptation?

- a Beavers have eyes to see.
- b Beavers have legs to walk.
- c Beavers have large, special teeth to cut trees.

2.) Which is an adaptation?

- a Beavers have a flat tail to help them swim.
- b Beavers drink water.
- c Beavers eat leaves.

3.) Which is an adaptation?

- a Beavers have feet to talk on.
- b Beavers have large lungs to hold their breath underwater.
- c Beavers have fur.

true | false

true | false