M Read about the multilingual family and circle the correct answers.

A multilingual family

My friend Justin is learning French. He talks about how difficult it is to learn French all the time. In the afternoon after school, he plays games on his laptop to learn new words in French. Last week I wanted to watch an American movie, but Justin didn't want to watch the movie because he wanted to watch a French movie! Sometimes in class he uses his earphones and I think he is listening to French. He says that he wants to go and live in France one day.

I don't understand Justin because I speak three languages, so I don't need to learn French. My father is Brazilian and he speaks Portuguese, and my mother is Honduran and she speaks Spanish. We live in North Carolina, so I speak English, Spanish and Portuguese.

Sometimes I think that I'm very lucky to speak three languages, but most of the time I don't think about it. Next year we are going on vacation to Rio de Janeiro to visit my cousins. We chat on Instagram but it's going to be so cool to meet them and to talk to them.

Viviana

1 Justin wanted / didn't want to watch an American movie.

2 Justin lives / doesn't live in France.

3 Viviana speaks / doesn't speak French.

4 Viviana's parents are / aren't American.

5 Viviana talks / doesn't talk to her cousins on the phone.

N Read the email. Circle True or False for each statement.

Hi Boris

I was happy to read your email! You're going to come to my house this summer. That's very good news! We're going to have a great time and there are a lot of things that we can do.

First of all, let me tell you about my family. I live with my parents and my sister Bruna and my brother Caio. Bruna is eleven years old and she goes to school with me. Caio is eighteen years old and he studies in a different town. He wants to be a doctor someday. I sent Caio an email yesterday to tell him about your visit.

My dad is a chef in a Mexican restaurant, and my mom is a doctor. Sometimes my parents have to work on the weekend and Bruna and I go to stay with my grandparents.

The first week you are here we're going to stay in an apartment on the beach. It's my grandparents' apartment, but they are not going to be there. In the morning we can swim and surf in the ocean, and in the afternoon we can get together with my friends.

You're going to be here in August, and it's the rainy season here then. It isn't cold but it rains a lot, so you need to take T-shirts and short for the beach and a coat for the rain.

Send me your flight times, and I can come to the airport to meet you!
