Hi Alice,
Thanks for your email. Sorry, I didn't reply to you. I was too busy. Today, I am going to have a birthday party at 6 o'clock in the evening. I am going to celebrate my birthday at Haidilao hotpot restaurant. I am going to invite my friends to make cake. My family and Alice are going to join the party. We are going to blow out candles, eat cakes, and play games together. I think there will be a traffic jam. Don't forget to book Grab early.
Can you come to my birthday party? I hope you can.
Take care.
Kaylin.
