PRESENT SIMPLE

Hoe zat het ook alweer??? De shit-rule!!! He / She / It (=shit) krijgt bij de Present Simple een S of een ES achter het werkwoord:
I work hard → She works hard You watch TV → He watches TV (+ES na een "s"-klank) We drive a new car → Susan drives a new car (Susan=she, dus krijgt ook +s)
Alleen het werkwoord "to be" (zijn) is helemaal anders, dus dat rijtje moet je uit je hoofd kennen! (am/are/is)

Zet het werkwoord tussen haakjes in de juiste vorm van de Present Simple:

1. Every day I _____ at a school. (work)
2. He never _____ to listen. (like)
3. They often _____the piano together. (play)
4. School usually _____at 4 p.m. (close)
5. My brother _____ also a teacher. (be)
6. He _____ English. (teach)
7. Anna always_____ a nice car. (drive)
8. He _____ his clothes every Sunday. (wash)
9. The train usually _____on time. (arrive)
10. The girls often _____lunch together. (eat)
11. Paul and Jane always _____ to school together. (walk)
12. You _____ absolutely right! (be)
13. He _____amazing in this outfit. (look)
14. Sarah _____TV every night. (watch)
15. My teacher _____a lot about history. (know)
16. The football match _____ at 5 p.m. (finish)
