Be & Do

Complete the conversation with the correct form of verb be or do. Use contractions where possible.

Interview at an Airport

Reporter: Excuse me. [1] _____ you have a few minutes to answer some questions?

Lucas: Sure! I[2] _____ waiting for my flight right now.

Reporter: Thanks! [3] _____ this your first time traveling abroad?

Lucas: No, it [4] _____. I travel for work every year.

Reporter: Interesting! Where [5] _____ you usually go?

Lucas: I usually visit cities in Europe and South America.

Reporter: And what [6] _____ your favorite country to visit?

Lucas: Italy is my favorite. The food and the people [7] _____ amazing.

Reporter: What kind of food [8] _____ you enjoy there?

Lucas: I love pasta and pizza. They [9] _____ much better in Italy!

Reporter: I heard Italian coffee is very famous, but my sister [10] _____ drink coffee because she prefers tea.

Reporter: Really? And who [11] _____ traveling with you today?

Lucas: My sister. She [12] _____ sitting near the window over there.

Reporter: Nice! [13] _____ she travel a lot too?

Lucas: Yes, she does. She loves discovering new places, but she [14] _____ like long flights very much.

Reporter: What about long flights? [15] _____ you mind them?

Lucas: Not really. I usually watch movies, so they [16] _____ too boring for me.

Reporter: And how [17] _____ the weather in your destination today?

Lucas: It [18] _____ sunny and warm, according to the forecast.

Reporter: Great! One last question: why [19] _____ you enjoy traveling so much?

Lucas: Because every trip [20] _____ a new adventure, and I always learn something new.

Reporter: Thanks for answering my questions today.

Lucas: No problem! It was nice talking to you.

Reporter: Have a great trip and enjoy your vacation!

Lucas: Thanks! Have a good day. Goodbye!

LIVEWORKSHEETS