B1

Five sentences have been removed from the text below.
For each question, choose the correct answer.
There are three extra sentences which you do not need to use.

Have you ever been to an exhibition for video games? My local museum has just opened a new exhibition which invites visitors to discover the creation of video games over the last 40 years, including the chance to view drawings, storyboards and original characters

1 ☐ The exhibition is now one of the most famous attractions in our city. It is full of people every day, learning about a wide range of video game genres and how they started.

Of course, there's an educational purpose to the exhibition. 2 ☐ These computers have been used by students in classrooms to write their own computer programs, including some video games. The museum is also advertising workshops where young children and students can learn similar skills, as they're still very popular.

Visiting these kinds of exhibitions can encourage people to discover how much fun it is to play video games with other family members and friends. In fact, there is a special area in the museum where people can sit down with their family or friends and choose an adventure game to play together. 3 ☐ Nowadays, fans of gaming usually prefer single-player games.

The exhibition also shows how much progress technology has made over the last 40 years. Parents can often remember playing very simple games, but games that are played today are much more complex and advanced. 4 ☐

Another advantage of visiting the museum is that children and students can learn how important the video gaming industry is and how many skilled people need to be employed during the making of a new game. 5 ☐ And the exhibition hopes to share this message with its visitors.

If you are interested in learning more about this special exhibition, you can visit their website or come along at weekends from 10 am.

A There are better storylines and animations, too.

B The exhibition lasts around 90 minutes.

C The history of video games is becoming more popular.

D This way, they can all enjoy playing the same game instead of playing alone.

E You can receive a prize if you win a game.

F They can create a soundtrack of background music.

G For example, some old types of computers are also available to view at the museum.

H People who enjoy gaming can understand the hard work and talent it takes to create a simple video game.
