LIVEWORKSHEETS

Part H. Read the following paragraph. Then choose True or False.

The García Family

The García family is a big family. They live in León, Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. García have two children: Ana and Carlos. Ana is married to David, and they have two children, Sofia and Mateo. Carlos is married to Laura, and they have one daughter, Emma.
Mr. and Mrs. García are Sofia, Mateo, and Emma's grandparents. Ana is their mother, and David is their father. Carlos and Laura are Emma's parents.
The family usually has lunch together on Sundays. Mr. García cooks delicious food, and Mrs. García makes dessert. Ana works at a school, and David works in an office. Carlos doesn't work on Sundays, but Laura works at a hospital.
Sofia and Mateo are students. They study English at school. Emma doesn't study English yet because she is only five years old. She usually plays with her cousins on Sundays.
Today is Sunday, and the whole family is at Mr. and Mrs. García's house. Mr. García is cooking lunch, and Mrs. García is making a cake. Ana is talking to her mother in the kitchen. David isn't working today. He is playing with Mateo in the garden.
Carlos and Laura are sitting in the living room. Carlos is drinking coffee, but Laura isn't drinking coffee. She is talking to Emma. Sofia is not playing with Emma because she is helping her grandmother.

Are they having a good family day? Yes, they are!
