КОНТРОЛЬНА РОБОТА

PART 1. LISTENING COMPREHENSION.

Listen to the interview between Mr Simpson and an editor. You'll hear it twice. Decide if the statements 1-8 are TRUE or FALSE.

1. Mrs Johnson is an editor.
2. Mr Jacobs is editor's secretary.
3. Mr Simpson is applying for a job as a secretary.
4. Mr Simpson is very reliable and honest.
5. Mr Simpson says that he writes beautiful stories.
6. Mr Simpson studied Journalism at university.
7. Mr Simpson worked for three years for the university newspaper.
8. Mr Simpson applied for this newspaper, because he enjoys reading.

PART 2. READING COMPREHENSION

Read the text and choose the best answer (A-D) to answer the questions (1-8).

In the 21st century, our need for energy is greater than it has ever been. Fossil fuels like coal, oil and gas were formed of years ago, and when power station burn them to create electricity, they release harmful gases into the atmosphere. There may be enough coal to last for a few hundred years, but known oil and gas reserves will run out in less than 50 years – and then what will we do?

Many scientists suggest turning to renewable energy, which means sources of energy that will never run out. It can be produced using the wind, the sun, waves or hot springs. The wind can turn large turbines to produce electricity, while energy from the sun can be collected in panels and stored in batteries. The movement of the sea can also be changed into electrical energy by using wave machines and, in parts of the world where there is volcanic activity, hot springs can produce geothermal energy. Unlike nuclear power, these are safe sources of energy that don't pollute the environment.

Our dependence on fossils fuels has to end soon. Let's hope that by the time all the reserves are gone, there will be enough alternative of efficient energy available. In the meantime, why don't we try to reduce the amount of energy that we use?

1. Nowadays, our need for energy is…
A. not as huge as earlier.
B. quite small.
C. bigger than ever.
D. not essential.

2. Burning fossils fuels releases…
A. electricity.
B. harmful gases.
C. coal.
D. oil and gas.

3. When known oil and gas reserves will disappear?
A. a few hundred years.
B. in less than fifty years.
C. in less than fifteen years.
D. in less than five years.

4. Renewable energy sources will never
A. end.
B. exist.
C. use.
D. start.

5. Renewable energy CAN'T be produced using
A. the wind.
B. the sun.
C. whales.

D. hot springs.

6. What can the wind's energy do?

A. It can produce electricity.

B. It can produce geothermal energy.

C. It can pollute environment.

D. It can be collected in panels and stored in batteries.

7. What can be changed into electrical energy by using wave machines?

A. Volcanic activity.

B. Hot springs.

C. Nuclear power.

D. The movement of the sea.

8. What should we try doing by the time all the reserves are gone?

A. Use less amount of energy.

B. Use more energy.

C. Do not use energy at all.

D. Use only electric energy.

PART 3. WRITING

Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense and voice. Use the table below and write correct letter (A, B or C) for lines 1-8.

Dear Helen,

I 1_____(to write) to you from Cambridge. We 2_____(to arrive) to London on Tuesday. Our hotel 3_____(to situate) not far from the city centre. I am impressed by the beauty of Cambridge. It 4._____(to know) as one of the oldest cities of the country. Its University 5_____(to found) in the 13th century. I 6._____(already to take) a lot of wonderful pictures and 7._____(to buy) some souvenirs for you. The weather here is very changeable. Unfortunately, I can't describe everything I have seen but I think we 8_____ (to have) enough time to discuss my journey when I return home. See you next week!

Love,
Alice

	A	B	C
1.	write	am writing	is writing
2.	arrived	arrive	were arrived
3.	was situated	situate	is situated
4.	knows	is known	knew
5.	founded	is founded	was founded
6.	have already taken	already took	already take
7.	buying	bought	was bought
8.	have	are having	will have

PART 4. SPEAKING

Make a short dialogue using 2 types of questions on topic "Internet in my life". Prepare 8-10 replicas
