Maria did her performance well on the stage.

She danced Jaipongan beautifully.

She moved her hands gracefully.

Everyone cheered happily to see her dance.

Her dance teacher watched her at the back attentively.

She was afraid that Maria would make a mistake.

She knew that Maria just recovered from an arm accident.

Unfortunately, that stopped Maria from practicing for a little while.

D. Read the text and answer the following questions.

Mumtaz and her classmates sat for the semester exam. One of the subjects in the exam was Social Sciences. The subject always gave Mumtaz challenges. She prepared for this examination very seriously. She even asked her best friend, Radit, to review the exam materials together. Radit always got good grades in this subject. However, Radit could not do the review because he did not feel very well that time.

On the day of the test, all students sat separately. Mumtaz and Radit could not sit together as usual. The teacher asked Radit to sit in the next row in front of Mumtaz. After the teacher distributed the exam papers, the students began to answer the questions. Mumtaz could not answer some questions. They were too difficult for her. She started to look around the class. Her friends were very busy writing their answers on the paper. Radit, however, often looked down. Mumtaz was surprised. Radit was holding his cellphone under his desk, and he was reading from it. Mumtaz did not know what to think. She felt angry at Radit, but she did not know what to do.
