One thing that is becoming popular is buying second-hand or used items. (1) _____ Now they're selling them and there are probably lots of people who want to buy them.

One reason for buying second-hand clothes is that it's a good way to recycle clothes people don't want anymore. Perhaps someone is bored with the item of clothing. (2) _____ Maybe it was a birthday present that they didn't want or they had the same item already. Whatever the reason, it's much better to give it to a second-hand shop or sell it online than to throw it in the bin.

(3) _____ There's also another reason why I like doing this. Many second-hand shops help people without food or a home, for example. (4) _____ And that has to be good, right?

Finally, you can find really interesting clothes if you buy second-hand. Sometimes people are selling clothes from many years ago. (5) _____ My friends love it because it's so different. It's nice to find something unusual and not to look the same as all your friends.
