Reading

4 Read the story. Complete the sentences about the text with one, two or three words.

The Photo
by Marion Underwood

Last year I invited my Italian friend Elena to spend a week at my house. It was my thirteenth birthday that week and I wanted to see all my friends. Elena travelled to the UK by train and Mum and I met her at the train station.

0 Elena went to England last year.
0 Marion and her mum met Elena at the train station.

It was lunch time when we arrived home and we were hungry. Mum cooked a great meal and we ate a lot! After lunch, Elena wanted to go sightseeing so we went to town and she bought some souvenirs. Then we went to a café and had ice cream.

1 The girls were hungry because it was _____.
2 Then they went _____ in the town.

The next day, it was my birthday. 'I've got a present for you but it's a surprise,' said Elena. In the afternoon, we had a party next to the swimming pool and I wanted to take a photo of everyone with my mobile phone camera. There were a lot of people so I walked back … and back … The next minute I was in the swimming pool with all my clothes on – and my mobile phone!

3 Marion's birthday party was _____ the swimming pool.
4 There were _____ people at the party.

I got out of the water. 'Oh, no! My phone and camera don't work!' I said. 'Don't worry,' said Elena. 'This is your birthday present from me!'. It was a new camera! And this time I took some photos of all my friends – and I didn't fall into the pool again. It was a very special birthday!

5 Elena's present was a new _____.
