Text 1: Items 29-30

In Britain, students have a special day called National Thank a Teacher Day in October. On this day, students can show how much they appreciate their teachers and other school helpers by writing notes or sending cards. It is a way to say "thank you" for all the help they give. Parents also help their children show gratitude on this day.

29. What do British students do on National Thank a Teacher Day?

1. Buy cards for their parents
2. Teach their friends to be thankful
