FRED AND THE PARTY

Listen to the audio. Read the story aloud. Then record your voice.

It was a very sunny morning on Friday. Fred got up, had breakfast with his brother, and then read his new comic and looked at all the pictures in it. Then he put his books and pens in his school bag and said 'Goodbye' to his family. He rode his bike to school and put it next to the long wall there. All his friends' bikes were there too.

Fred went to his classroom and sat down. He put his school books on the desk and took off his jacket because it was hot in the room. The room was very quiet because the teacher wasn't there. No children were there, only Fred. Then he looked out of the window. He saw lots of people outside on the grass.

Fred saw his teacher there with his guitar. All his friends were there, too. In front of them were two clowns. The first clown threw a tomato and it went in the second clown's mouth. All the children laughed. Fred thought, 'Oh, yes!! It's our last day of school today. It's the school party today, not lessons!' Then he ran outside and sat down with his friends.
