PART 1: READING

I. Read and choose the correct answer for each question below.

Becky was visiting Aunt Agatha at her house at the beach. It was a beautiful summer day. Becky had built a giant sand castle that morning. Aunt Agatha took pictures of the castle to send to Becky's parents. It was a great big sand castle. Later that morning, Becky and Aunt Agatha went swimming in the ocean. It was fun to jump with the waves. Then, they went in the house and ate sandwiches and strawberries for lunch.

Becky wanted to play on the beach that afternoon. Aunt Agatha told her it was too hot to go outside without a hat on. Becky didn't have a hat. Aunt Agatha told her not to worry, she could wear one of hers. Becky tried on four hats. The pink one was really pretty, but it had a big bow in the back that was too long for Becky. The green hat was too fancy for Becky. She did not like that hat at all. The blue hat was nice, but it had an ugly bird on it. Then, Becky saw a big brown hat with a yellow ribbon on it. That hat was made of straw. It was a perfect hat for the beach. It was too big for Becky's head but she didn't care. It was a great hat.

Dr. Francine Patterson

Most teachers don't teach the same student for longer than one year, but Dr. Francine Patterson has taught one student for over thirty years. Her student, Koko, is not an ordinary student. Koko is a gorilla.

In 1972, Francine Patterson was a student, too. She attended Stanford University in California and did research in psychology. As part of her research, she worked with a one-year-old gorilla at the San Francisco Zoo. The Gorilla's name is Hanabi-Ko. This means "child of fireworks" in Japanese. Her nickname is Koko. Francine Patterson has a nickname, too. It's Penny.

Penny taught Koko to communicate with sign language. Penny learned a lot from Koko, who had a lot to say. She learned that gorillas can think, imagine, and feel; and that gorillas, like humans, can communicate their thoughts and feelings.

Penny and Koko are now famous. Penny is a published author, and Koko has her own website.
