REVIEW #1

TOPIC: JUSTICE AS A REFERENCE TO COEXIST

DRAG AND DROP THE INSTITUTION THAT IS BEING DESCRIBED.

International Court of Justice (ICJ) | International Labor Organization (ILO)
Supreme Court of Justice of the Nation (SCJN) | The Attorney General's Office (PGR)
National Human Rights Commission (CNDH)

1. It is in charge of setting labor standards, developing policies and promoting decent work for all women and men. _____

2. It is in charge of promoting and protecting the Human Rights. _____

3. It is in charge of defending the order established by the Mexican constitution and to solve in a definite form society's most important problems. _____

4. It is in charge of investigating and pursuing federal offences and responding to the social interest and common good of all the Mexican people. _____

5. It is in charge of settling international legal disputes submitted to it and giving advisory opinions on legal questions. _____

CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER.

6. This concept depends on the times and the culture.

a) social justice
b) equality
c) justice

7. Giving the same to everyone.

a) social justice
b) equality
c) justice

Made by: Teacher Olaya Leyva

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. It is the equilibrated distribution of goods in a society.

a) social justice

b) distributive justice

c) retributive justice

9. Give to the people what they are entitled according to their contribution to society.

a) social justice

b) distributive justice

c) retributive justice

10. The proportionate punishment given to a person that committed a crime.

a) social justice

b) distributive justice

c) retributive justice

11. It is a fair or just treatment. Its main goal is to ensure the peace and the common good in a society. To give each individual what they need.

a) social justice

b) equality

c) justice

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS

12. Mary works at a hospital and she works from 7:00 am to 4:00 pm. Her co-worker, Sam, works from 7:00 am to 11:00 am. Mary earns $12,000 per month and Sam only earns $6,000.
This is a case of...

a) Distributive justice

b) Retributive justice

13. A very wealthy international company is treating poorly its employees. They are hiring children to do their manual labor, the conditions where the employees work are very dangerous and the hours are exhaustive. Which organism is responsible to solve this problem?

a) International Court of Justice (ICJ)

b) International Labor Organization (ILO)

c) Supreme Court of Justice of the Nation (SCJN)

d) Attorney General's Office (PGR)

e) National Human Rights Commission (CNDH)

Made by: Teacher Olaya Leyva

LIVEWORKSHEETS

14. John was walking back home late at night. He had just finished his shift at the restaurant where he works. Suddenly two police officers stop John and ask him to empty his pockets. He was confused about what was going on, so he hesitated for a while. The officers accused him of disobeying an order, so they detained him and took him to a detention center. Which organism is responsible to solve this problem?

a) International Court of Justice (ICJ)

b) International Labor Organization (ILO)

c) Supreme Court of Justice of the Nation (SCJN)

d) Attorney General's Office (PGR)

e) National Human Rights Commission (CNDH)

15. Two countries have different political views and disagreements start happening. One of the countries decided to attack the other one and a war is about to begin.
Which organism is responsible to solve this problem?

a) International Court of Justice (ICJ)

b) International Labor Organization (ILO)

c) Supreme Court of Justice of the Nation (SCJN)

d) Attorney General's Office (PGR)

e) National Human Rights Commission (CNDH)

Made by: Teacher Olaya Leyva

LIVEWORKSHEETS