1. Look at the present perfect structure: "Have you ever flown a kite? Yes, I have flown a kite." What auxiliary verb is used to form the present perfect tense with pronouns I, you, we, they?
    A. Has
    B. Have
    C. Did
    D. Are

2. "A camel is an animal with four legs that looks a bit like a cow. It has either one or two humps on its back." Where do people typically ride camels or see them in desert environments described in the reading?
    A. At an indoor ice skating rink
    B. In Egypt near the pyramids
    C. Inside a high-rise elevator in China
    D. At a local supermarket in the basement

3. "We've also been to Bali. It's a famous island in Indonesia... We've seen waterfalls, walked through jungles, and swum in lively trenches." What tourist landmark in Yogyakarta, Indonesia, is mentioned in the reading text?
    A. The Shanghai Tower
    B. Borobudur Temple
    C. The West Edmonton Mall
    D. The Queen's Theater

4. Complete the negative short answer in the present perfect tense: "Has your father ever ridden a camel? No, he _____."
    A. haven't
    B. hasn't
    C. isn't
    D. didn't

5. "I've never taken an elevator to the top of every tall building. I have seen pictures of some enormous buildings online and in movies, but I've never visited one... My parents have already been to the top floor of the Tower." Why did Kylie's parents say it was breathtaking?
    A. Because they felt like they were in the clouds
    B. Because the elevator was broken and dirty
    C. Because they were riding a camel in the desert
    D. Because the aquarium water was freezing cold

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Which past participle form is incorrect?
    A. Fly - flown
    B. Eat - eaten
    C. Swim - swum
    D. Go – goes

7. Look at this sentence with "already": "Yes, I've already studied for my exam." Where is "already" typically placed in a present perfect affirmative sentence?
    A. At the very end of the sentence
    B. Between the auxiliary verb (have/has) and the past participle
    C. Before the subject pronoun
    D. Directly after the main action verb

8. "Have you eaten breakfast yet? No, I haven't eaten breakfast yet." When do we use the word "yet" in sentences?
    A. In affirmative sentences to show something happened early
    B. In negative sentences and questions to talk about something that hasn't happened up to now
    C. To describe permanent physical traits of animals
    D. To give commands in a department store

9. Identify the mistake in this sentence: "I have ever been to the zoo."
    A. Change have to has
    B. Remove ever because ever is generally not used in affirmative present perfect sentences (use never for negative)
    C. Change been to gone
    D. Change to to at

10. "We can see many different ocean animals at the aquarium, like fish, octopus, turtles and many more." Why did Kylie state in her email that blue whales cannot live in an aquarium?
    A. Because blue whales are too big
    B. Because blue whales only live in hot deserts
    C. Because aquariums do not have any water
    D. Because blue whales eat chocolate donuts

11. "Where is John? He has done his homework and has gone to the mall with his friends." What is the difference in meaning between "gone" and "been" in the present perfect?
    A. Gone means someone went somewhere and hasn't returned yet; been means they visited a place and have returned.
    B. Gone is used for past tense; been is used for future tense.
    C. There is no difference at all.
    D. Gone is only used with animals; been is used with humans.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

12. Complete the sentence with the correct adverb: "Has Robert _____ swum in the ocean?"
    A. already
    B. ever
    C. yet
    D. never

13. In the listening dialogue about stadium experiences, what did Mr. Miller go to the stadium for?
    A. To watch a baseball match
    B. To see his favorite music band play a concert
    C. To watch his hometown soccer team play
    D. To watch a theatrical musical play

14. How many times has David made pizza with his family because his father's grandparents are from Italy?
    A. Exactly 5 times
    B. Over 30 times
    C. Less than 10 times
    D. Only once

15. "Have you ever worn a costume to a party? Wearing a costume can be fun!" Which of the following words is the correct past participle of the verb wear?
    A. Wearved
    B. Worn
    C. Wearing
    D. Wares

16. "Dad, I've forgotten the Wi-Fi password. What is it?" What is the base verb form (infinitive) of the past participle "forgotten"?
    A. Forget
    B. Fall
    C. Find
    D. Freeze

17. Look at the workbook grammar correction: "Yes, we already have be to that Spanish restaurant." What is the correct grammatical correction?
    A. Yes, we have already been to that Spanish restaurant.
    B. Yes, we already are been to that restaurant.
    C. Yes, we have be already to that restaurant.
    D. Yes, we already had be to that restaurant.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

18. In the reading text about Indonesia, what did Uncle Edward, Aunt Diana, Emma, and Ricky do after walking through the jungles?
    A. They rode camels across the Egyptian desert.
    B. They went scuba diving and saw sharks, turtles, and rays.
    C. They took an elevator to the top of the Shanghai Tower.
    D. They bought groceries at Stars Supermarket.

19. Complete the question about life experiences: "_____ you ever sung songs in English with your family at home?"
    A. Has
    B. Have
    C. Did
    D. Are

20. What is the specific goal of the group work task?
    A. To find five activities all group members have already done and five activities none of them have done yet.
    B. To design a brand new shopping mall with an underground basement.
    C. To write a recipe for making banana and honey cake.
    D. To measure the temperature of water in an indoor wave pool.

LIVEWORKSHEETS