Directions: Work with a partner for 3 minutes. Read the two listening situations below and answer the questions together.

Situation 1: Two friends, Kerem and Dilara, are chatting about what to do on Saturday afternoon (like going rock climbing, playing tennis, or hanging out at a café).

1. What problems or changes might happen when two friends make weekend plans?

_____

2. Which words or phrases do people often use when they hesitate or change their mind while speaking? (Circle the ones you think you might hear):
[um / uh] [well] [actually] [I mean] [sorry / wait]

Situation 2: Mert, the leader of the Outdoor and Hobby Club, leaves a voice message about a Sunday camping and hiking trip.

1. What kinds of things might a club leader update or change before a weekend trip? (e.g., what to bring, the time, or the plan if it rains):

_____

2. Which hesitation or self-correction phrase might Mert use when changing a detail in his message?

_____
