Mini-Quiz 11: Passive voice 1

1. We use the Passive Voice: (mark ALL that apply) (3 points)

a. to highlight who the subject is,

b. when we don't know who the subject is,

c. when subject is not important

d. when we know who the subject is

e. when the subject is obvious from the context (or it is a person who usually performs he action)

f. when there is a subject in the sentence.

2. How do we create passive voice? (3 points)

_____

_____

_____

3. Change the sentence to passive voice: (5 points, 1 point each)

a. The teacher is preparing the quizzes for her students.

_____

b. A police officer investigates the crimes.

_____

c. Someone ate my chocolate chip cookie!

_____

d. Nobody cleaned the house and now it's dirty.

_____

e. They talked about the new undergraduate program during the meeting.

_____

4. The videos _____ by students the night before the class. (1 point)

a. are be watched b. are watched c. are watching d. be watched

5. The chemistry book _____ in one night last week by Mary. (1 point)

a. is read b. was reading c. was read d. has been read

6. Persuasive essay _____ in two weeks, after the midterm exam. (1 point)

a. will wrote b. is writing c. will be wrote d. will be written

7. Your pizza _____ right now. (1 point)

a. is preparing b. is be prepared c. is being prepared d. is prepared

8. The stairs ____ when it started to rain. (1 point)

a. was repaired b. was being repaired

c. were being repaired d. were be repaired

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. The new road _____ recently at the campus. (1 point)

a. has build b. has been building

c. was built d. has been built

10. We couldn't visit The Louvre in Paris. The doors of the museum____ by the time we arrived. (1 point)

a. was closed b. had closed c. had been closed d. had been closing

11. Are the sentences in passive voice correct? Yes (Y) /No (N) If the sentences are not correct, rewrite the sentences correcting the errors. (2 points, 0,5 point each)

a. We have just eaten the chocolate David brought for us. → The chocolate David brought for us was just eaten.

b. The mayor is going to build new market in Ibarra next year. → A new market in Ibarra will be built next year.

c. I am working on the chemistry project right now. → The chemistry project is being worked on.

d. My friends have organized a birthday party for me. → My birthday party has been organizing by my friends.

LIVEWORKSHEETS