Task 2

How to travel

Read the travel tips. Match each text (1-7) with its title (B–K). Use only 7 titles. Write your answers in the boxes. There is an example (0) at the beginning.

0	You don't need to be rich to travel. If you know how much money you have it will influence your trip.
1	If you need a break from your busy life, have a relaxing beach vacation. If you are bored, find an adventure vacation – rafting, rock climbing or visiting a national park.
2	There are months when there are the biggest crowds, the best weather and the highest prices. Some months mean fewer tourists but the possibility of terrible weather.
3	From tree houses to campgrounds and private apartments there are many possibilities when you plan where to stay. If you want to meet other travellers a hostel may be a good choice.
4	Make sure you put your toothbrush into your suitcase. Other must-haves: a light rain jacket, a battery for your phone, something to read to pass the time on flights and bus rides.
5	Don't carry your money, mobile phone or tablet in a bag on your shoulder. Buy a money belt or small purse that you wear on your body. Keep your cash and credit card in this.
6	Many cities give some kind of tourist pass, which means free entry into museums, tours and historical sites. The best time to buy a cheap ticket for a flight is between 171-50 days (5-1.5 months) before travel.
7	Even a few important phrases – "hello," "thank you," "excuse me," "where is the bathroom?" – can help. People are ready to help you if you try to communicate with words they understand.

Task 3

Bears in the neighbourhood

Read the story. Choose the correct answer (A, B or C). Write your answers in the boxes. There is an example (0) at the beginning.

I saw a YouTube video showing a man who is working on his car in front of his garage when suddenly a bear shows up and enters the garage. The man does not get out of there as fast as he can but pulls out his phone and starts making a film of the bear while shouting at it. The bear tries to hit the man several times and eventually goes out the door and around the corner. Thankfully, no one gets hurt, but it's silly that the man doesn't run away but wants to record the animal and share the experience with the world.

In my childhood I grew up in the Muskoka woods of Ontario, Canada. Black bears were a regular part of life, but we were taught always to stay clear and mind our own business. We sometimes saw one among the trees in the distance while walking down the road to catch the school bus.

Every year there were tales of neighbouring houses that hungry bears broke into in springtime. One night, when I was around 10, two crying teenage girls ran to us. They lived two houses away. They were on their own that evening and while they were sitting in their living room, they looked up and discovered a bear entering the room.

The girls were smart enough to want to save themselves first so they escaped through the bathroom window and ran to my home, where they spent the night. When my dad went over in the morning, he saw that the bear destroyed the kitchen furniture and the fridge.

0 Where is the man repairing his car?
- A Near his garage.
- B In the garage.
- C In the forest.

1 Where does the bear walk into?
- A The house.
- B The pool.
- C The garage.

2 What does the man do with the bear?
- A He hits it.
- B He films it.
- C He catches it.

3 Why is this situation unusual?
- A The bear is friendly.
- B The bear gets hurt.
- C The man doesn't run away.

4 Why did the writer often meet bears?
- A He grew up in a forest.
- B His father worked in a zoo.
- C He often went to the circus.

5 Why did bears enter houses in spring?
- A They were lonely.
- B They looked for food.
- C They were cold.

6 Who asked for help one evening?
- A Business people.
- B Neighbours.
- C Tourists.

7 What did the bear break?
- A The window.
- B The sofa.
- C The fridge.
