THE BIG 3

Who said what about whom?

Here are some statements that were made by the Big 3 at the Paris Peace Conference. Your task is to decide which leader made the statement and also who was he talking about. You'll need to be able to explain your answers in our next class.

	Statements	Who said it?	To whom?
1	He is too anxious to preserve his empire to want self-determination for colonies.	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
2	His country has been ruling the waves for too long to accept the need for freedom of the seas.	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
3	He wants to wreck a country which in a few years could be a valuable trading partner and a source of vital jobs.	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
4	Freedom of the seas is all very well but who or what will protect my country's ships and trade?	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
5	What does he know about colonies and how they should be ruled? He probably doesn't know where most of them are!	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
6	How can I work with a man who thinks that he's the first leader in 2000 years who knows anything about peace?	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
7	If he is so anxious to make concessions to the Germans then they should look overseas and make naval or colonial concessions.	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
8	He is stuck in the past. If he gets his way Germany will be left bitter and vengeful and there will be another war in a few years.	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
9	He is very happy to give concessions to GErmany in areas which do not threatened his country.	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
10	He must make concessions to the Germans, perhaps over the Rhineland or Alsace-Lorraine.	1 - 2 - 3	1 - 2 - 3
