1. Read the rules and complete them with a/ an, some and any.
   - We use _____ in negative sentences and questions with countable and uncountable nouns (all nouns).
   - We use _____ in affirmative sentences with countable and uncountable nouns (all nouns).
   - We use _____, _____ or numbers with only countable nouns.

5. Focus on Linguini's trolley. Classify the products from the trolley on the board. For the countable nouns in singular, write a or an before them.

Bread, olive oil, lemon, pineapple, tomatoes, bananas, lettuce, milk, apples, orange, pepper, aubergine.

Countable nouns (singular)	Countable nouns (plural)	Uncountable nouns