

Regular Verbs. Most common (Present, Past/Past Participle, from A to D)

The verbs are words that we use for realizing the actions in our daily routines.

Examples:

- You can accept a new assistant.
- Paul and Mary dance bachata every day at the dancing academy.

To take it account

In this case, accept and dance are verbs that realize the actions. The actions to accept and to dance.

Now, we will see the next verbs in the three times: Present, Simple Past and Past participle.

The regular verbs in past participle are the same in Simple Past. Those verbs always finish in "ed".
