Test

PUT THE VERBS IN CORRECT TENSES (THE PRESENT SIMPLE, THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS).

1. Mary _____ (not send) letters often, but she _____ (write) one to her mother now.

2. I _____ (work) from home today, but usually I _____ (work) in an office.

3. We usually _____ (go) to Spain on vacation, but this year we _____ (go) to Mexico.

4. Helen _____ (work) in an elementary school. She _____ (teach) math right now.

5. I _____ (not eat) meat very often, but tonight I _____ (have) a steak.

FILL IN THE GAPS BY PUTTING THE VERBS IN THE CORRECT TENSES (THE PAST SIMPLE, THE PAST CONTINUOUS, THE PAST PERFECT, THE PAST PERFECT CONTINUOUS, THE PRESENT PERFECT, THE PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS).

1. When I arrived at the venue, I realized I _____ (not bring) the tickets.

2. By the time we arrived at the theater, the play _____ (begin).

3. I _____ (not see) that movie yet. Jon told me it's great.

4. Sophie _____ (cook) all morning. She's exhausted.

5. Harry looked great. He _____ (wear) his new suit.

6. Natalia _____ (sunbathe) when she noticed a monkey in a tree.

7. I _____ (not go) to the party on Friday. I was at a concert.

8. Len _____ (decorate). He has paint on his clothes.

9. Jamie _____ (practice) for months before yesterday's show.

10. I _____ (call) my dad this morning to wish him a happy birthday.

11. Bill _____ (take) a bath when he heard a knock at the door.

CORRECT MISTAKES IN EACH SENTENCE (WRITE A FULL SENTENCE).(BE GOING TO, THE FUTURE SIMPLE, THE FUTURE CONTINIOUS, THE FUTURE PERFECT, THE FUTURE PERFECT CONTINUOUS, THE PRESENT SIMPLE, THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS, THE FUTURE IN THE PAST)

1. Our company not going to make a profit this year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. I don't think my son will to be an artist when he grows up.

3. I can't meet you tommorow. I'll play tennis with Antoine.

4. We going to be miss the beginning of the play. Let's hurry!

5. Sal will have be working at the diner for 10 years in August.

6. I was going eat another piece of cake, but I remembered I was on a diet.

7. At 8 pm tomorrow, she will watches her favourite TV show.

8. By the end of this week, we will finished the project.

9. The train will leaves at 7:30 tomorrow morning.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT WORDS IN EACH SENTENCE (USED TO / BE USED TO / GET USED TO).

1. Are you used to / got used to living in a tropical country yet?

2. I was used to / used to travel to work on foot before they built the metro.

3. When I lived in Berlin, we used to / get used to live in an apartment downtown.

4. Were you used to / Did you use to work in the Edinburgh branch?

5. I grew up in Japan, so I'm used to / got used to driving on the left.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Arnold's used to / use to waking up at 5 a.m. every morning.

7. I used to / am used to working for a demanding boss.

8. When I was a child, I didn't get used to / use to like going to school.

9. We are used to / used to go to Florida each year on vacation.

10. My father used to / getting used to work in a factory until it closed down.

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES USING THE CORRECT PASSIVE FORM OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS (PASSIVE VOICE).

1. Every year, millions of books _____ (publish) around the world.

2. Look! The new road _____ (repair) right now.

3. Shakespeare's famous play Hamlet _____ (write) in the early 1600s.

4. At 10 a.m. yesterday, the classroom _____ (paint) by two workers.

5. The invitations _____ (already / send). You don't need to send them again.

6. By the time the police arrived, the stolen car _____ (already / find).

7. The results _____ (announce) tomorrow at 9 a.m.

8. By the end of next month, the new shopping centre _____ (complete).

9. All mobile phones must _____ (switch off) during the exam.

10. They have already made a decision: a new factory _____ (build) next year.

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES USING THE CORRECT FORM OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS. (CONDITIONALS (0, 1, 2, 3, MIXED) & I WISH)

1. If you heat water to 100°C, it _____ (boil).

2. If it rains tomorrow, we _____ (stay) at home.

3. If I won the lottery, I _____ (buy) a big house.

4. If she had studied harder last year, she _____ (pass) the exam.

5. If I had gone to bed earlier last night, I _____ (not / feel) so tired now.

6. If he were more responsible, he _____ (not / forget) about the meeting yesterday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. I wish I _____ (speak) English fluently. (I can't speak it fluently now.)

8. I wish I _____ (not / spend) so much money yesterday. (I regret spending it.)

MATCH THE PROFESSIONSWITH THEIR DUTIES (VOCABULARY).

Professions:

1. a petroleum engineer
2. a geologist
3. a geophysicist
4. a subsurface geologist
5. a photogeologist
6. a paleontologist
7. a geochemist
8. a lithologist
9. a cable-tool driller
10. a rotary driller
11. a tool dresser
12. a derrick man
13. a motor man
14. a roughneck
15. a roustabout

Duties:

a. to control the drilling crew's work and to know everything that is happening down the hole by the speed of machinery and records of special instruments.

b. to study the chemical composition of the cuttings from deeply buried sands.

c. to fulfil general operations in the oil field being an unskilled or semiskilled worker.

d. to recommend and locate the best place to drill for oil.

e. to measure forces of gravity and magnetism of the rocks.

f. to control and supervise the drilling of a number of wells.

g. to outline and indicate the contacts between types of rocks.

h. to map the outcropped formations and measure the thickness of exposed strata.

i. to work up the derrick as a member of the drilling crew and control the top of the drill pipe.

k. to control the drilling operations of a cable-tool rig.

l. to devise new systems and methods for getting more oil out of the ground.

m. to control the engine's operation.

n. to study fossils remains and determine the age of beds.

o. to determine the character and attitude of the rocks by means of different types of logs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

p. to work on the derrick floor and be one of the assistants to a driller.

r. to study and correlate strata's mineral constituents with a microscope.

s. a cable-tool driller's assistant and his right-hand man.

LIVEWORKSHEETS