
Activities: present simple and present continuous

1. Read this sentence, choose if the sentences are right (R) or wrong (W). If one of the sentences is not well written, rewrite it in the gap. If one of the sentences is well written, just write 'Right' in the gap.

   Example: He is reading a novel R / W

   Right

a. You is explaining the oral presentation to the teacher. R / W

b. She is eating pizza with pineapple? R / W

c. They are comming back home. R / W

d. My brother and I is writing a letter. R / W

e. The teacher is givin the exams. R / W

f. The dog is sleeping in our bedroom. R / W

2. Link the first part of the sentence (on the left column) with its second part (on the right columna).

My brother is eating	cooking a wonderful dinner
He walks	a vegetarian burguer
Do you	on the beach every morning
I usually draw	take many pictures today?
My mother is	boats on my notebook

3. Watch this video and choose if the sentences are true (T) or false (F).

LIVEWORKSHEETS

If you need some help with the structure and the cases of the PRESENTE CONTINUOUS, you can read the information below the video in the web page.
The video shows an online conversation between two friends of class.

a. They are studying for the exam of tomorrow T / F
b. He is downloading some photos to Facebook. T / F
c. They are meeting Lucas. T / F
d. The blonde boy is not studying. T / F
e. He is calling his mother. T / F
f. His mother is riding a camel. T / F

4. Multiple choice: choose the right option in each sentence.
   a. I am / is / are writing an essay
   b. Are / Do / Is my brother and you reading the same book?
   c. Is / Does / Do my sister play football every week?
   d. You are / is / am playing a musical instrument.
   e. My friends are going / go to the cinema every Saturday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS