What's the Svalbard Vault?

Watch this video and then, do the exercise below:

Click on the sentences which are True:

1. The vault is a special place in the Arctic to keep seeds.
2. You can find 4.5 million samples of seeds in the vault.
3. There is a bridge that connects the entrance of the vault to the store where they keep the seeds.
4. This building is meant to be a back-up system to protect humanity against any catastrophe.
5. Some politicians call the place "The Noah's Ark of plant diversity".
6. The guide in the building thinks the place where the seeds are kept is the world's most important room.
7. Only a few countries have sent their seeds to the Vault.
8. The Vault is like a bank to keep seeds.
9. The place for the Vault was chosen because it's always frozen and it's far away from war conflicts.
10. If countries have a problem with their seeds, they can go and collect their seeds back.
11. There is a bigger collection of genetic diversity of crops in the world.

LIVEWORKSHEETS